YOUR GOOD WORK MUST GET FOUND.

Telliscope for startups

You’re building something worth finding.

Help buyers discover your startup on Google and in AI answers, with content built from what makes your business different.

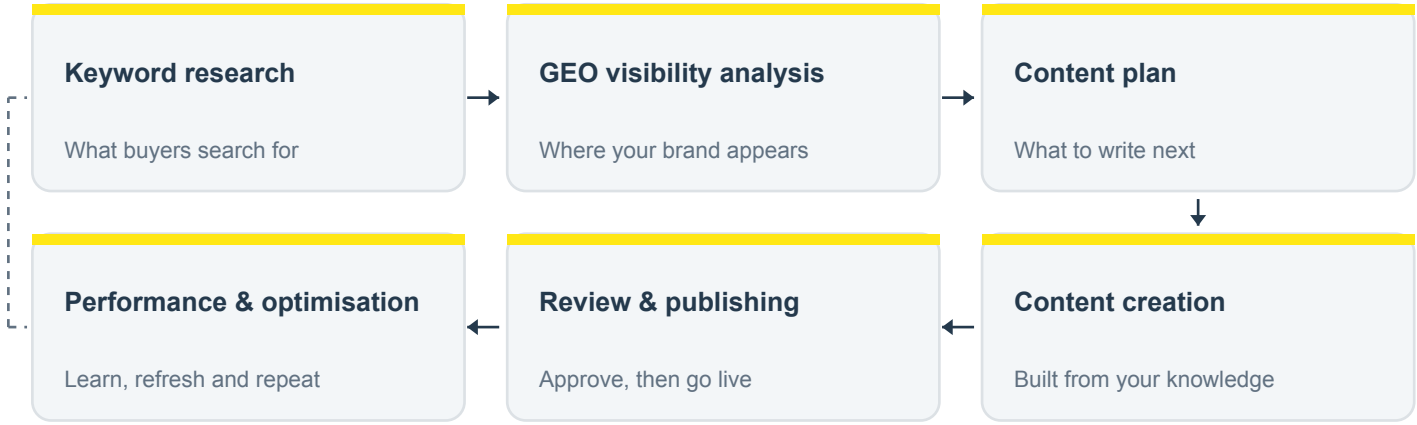
Your next customer could be asking AI.

Buyers use Google and AI assistants to explore problems, compare options and choose what to try. SEO helps you appear in search results. GEO, or generative engine optimisation, focuses on your visibility in AI answers.

In the early days, every discovery matters. Give people a way to find your startup before they know its name.

Meet Telliscope

Telliscope is a content intelligence platform that combines human content strategy, AI automation and your business knowledge to create website content to get you featured on



Apply for free credits & discounts

We’ll evaluate your startup and offer tailored support to a select few eligible applicants. The offer and duration will be shared after review.

telliscope.app/startups